Program: Doug Venable, Janesville Economic Development

Doug Venable with Janesville Economic Development was our program. This department's mission is to stimulate the flow of money through the local economy via helping existing business, assist with new start up firms, attract new business, increase local spending, and attract Federal and State money..

Guests:

- 1. Ed Menchaca - Guest of Jim Holmstrom
2. Erick Bourgouis - Guest of Jim Damrow
3. Notable Returnee- Eric Garvin
4. Students of the Month - from Craig Brandon O'Neil, from Parker Aaron Ziltener.
5. Parker Key Club- Emily Rennie, Junelle Brown and Andy Bright

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

The good Rev. Judy Huseth drew the 5 of Diamonds. $ 176.00 rolls over to next week.

Announcements:

- 1. Next Wednesday is a Golden K interclub at the Sons Of Norway- 8:00AM. Help is needed for the first year parenting newsletter.
2. November 13 (Yes- the same day as the Fest of Ale) is the Governors Banquet. If anyone can join Tom Waller and Floyds Kowal, please contact Tom.
3. Linda passed the sign up sheet for Fest of Ale. Several shift slots need to be taken. Please contact Linda or sign up at the next meeting on 10/21. Out of town guests can receive a discount at the Baymont Inn & Suites thanks to Kevin Apfel. They only need to mention they came to the Fest of Ale. Linda will need unsold tickets. Please do not hang on to them if you do not sell them. Anyone who can transport beer from Tyranea Brewery in Lake Mills the week of the Fest, please contact Linda. You will need access to a pick-up or large SUV.
4. Congrats for significant contributions to Kiwanis go to Stu Charland and Don Lukas. Stu received the Legion of Honor for 30 years membership as did Don. Stu also received the Kiwanis Fellow Award for outstanding service.

Happy Dollars:

- 1. Dave Wimann was happy to see student guest Brandon O'Neil. He thinks highly of Brandon and his family. He was also happy that a joint meeting at Roosevelt School with Jim Leeser will probably produce a K Kids Club.
2. Stu Charland was happy he sat next to astronaut Neal Armstrong while in Branson, MO.
3. Terry Huseth was happy because Stu was happy he also saw Ann Margaret in Branson.
4. Lon Haenel was happy he could make a meeting and intends to grace us with his presence more often..
5. Laura Feit was happy an offer was received on her house.
6. Linda Bolin-Mellenburger was happy Lon Haenel and Eric Garvin could be at the meeting. Especially since Eric brought his check book to buy tickets.
7. Tom Waller was happy with the installation banquet and noted the terrific enthusiasm Dave Wyland has for the Roosevelt School K Kids Club.
8. Kevin O'Leary was happy for a brand new 6 Lb. 13 Oz. bundle of joy called Audrey. This is number 3.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

- 10/21 - Member Lon Haenel of the Jotter
10/28 - New member induction
11/4 - TBA
11/11 - TBA
