OSHA covers all employees in state and has offices in Eau Claire, Appleton, Milwaukee and Madison. 30% of inspections result in no violations. OSHA offers information to all businesses particularly small businesses. Information available on website: www.osha.gov. Feel free to call their 800 numbers with questions. Do not need to identify yourself. There is a free consultation service for employers with less than 200 employees.

Guests:

1. Lieutenant Governor Marcia Lee
2. Students of the Month – from Parker Zach Peterson.
3. Parker Key Club- Corey McCool

Happy Dollars:

1. Kevin Apfel – thanks to Linda
2. Ed Pulliam – finally got ahold of Dick Siefkes. The Verhovens were there visiting while in Florida. Dick reported no damage to his home, although they were without electricity and phone for some time.
3. Jack Damrow – thanks for the turnout, especially Robbie, Linda and Janey Apfel
4. Linda M. – happy Fest of Ale is over
5. Robbie – Thanks for Linda's help
6. Don Chapin – Thanks for Linda's help
7. Kevin O'Leary – a long winded story about CWD, a rabid raccoon and his hunting prowess (we think he had too much ale)
8. David O'Leary – his eyesight finally came back after seeing Jim Damrow at Fest of Ale
9. George Mark – Sorry he pooped out at Fest of Ale and went home early
10. Eric Garvin – Got up close with Jim Damrow's "Stoodla Pumpa's" at Fest of Ale
11. Pat Weberpal – wants a designated person to pickup things for Damrow, so he doesn't have to bend over at Fest of Ale
12. Kevin Apfel – Thankful that Jim Damrow wore the small shorts

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Harvey Miller – Jack of Clubs The pot is now at $322.00

Announcements:

1. There was an Interclub at Blockhawk Golden K. November 17, 2004. Participants were Dr. Jack Damrow, Dale Henning, Andy Frelich and Floyd Kowal.
 2. Ed Pulliam – Certificate of appreciation was passed around for members to sign for Will Park's, thanking him for his efforts to organize the initial Fest of Ale and Secretary duties.
 3. Two openings left at Christmas party
- Fest of Ale Update
4. Eric S. - $8,000 raised at Fest of Ale, thanked Linda, feedback all positive
 5. Linda M. – "We ran like a well oiled machine." (some were more oiled than others)
 - a. Rockford Register Star had a nice article on our Fest of Ale
 - b. Winners were: Blue Creek, Blueberry Ale, Berghoff Original Lager, J. T. Whitney's pumpkin ale, Gray's Rock Hard Red
