Program: Al Schuetz: Agriculture Cooperative Development International PART II

Al gave a very interesting presentation complete with many slides of his trip to Armenia. Al makes many trips to many underdeveloped countries to help them with various aspects business. On this trip he was working with a factory that was producing yogurt. They seemed to have some quality issues with the shelf life of their product. Even though it only took Al a few days to figure out what the problem was, they kept him busy for the rest of his time there. On one of his last days there, shortly before the end of the day, they asked him to come up with a formula for drinkable yogurt ... by the next day if possible! Upon the guidance of another consultant, Al suggested adding fewer solids to the mix while stirring more frequently, having no idea how this was going to turn out! It turned out well, as they had a hard time keeping it away from the employees.

Guests:

1. Major Trish Taube, guest of Dr. Kevin O'Leary
2. Denise Wimann, Craig Key Club Advisor
3. Students of the month: Natalie Weisensel and Steven Jacowski from Craig and Tom Strieker from Parker
4. Key Club: Amanda Arnejen, Kaitlyn Jines, Kathaline Smith and Blair Kessler from Craig and Vanessa Jahns from Parker.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Dale Henning drew the 3 of Diamonds ... the pot rolls over. Thanks, Dale!

Announcements:

1. Dave Calverly mentioned that we have completed another highly successful Breakfast with Santa. The kids brought many cards for Santa and left with full bellies and happy hearts!
2. The sign up for Salvation Army Bell Ringing on 12/17 is looking great! Thanks to everyone for volunteering!
3. Ed Pulliam gave a short recap (well, short for Ed) of our board meeting on 12/15. It was a very interesting board meeting. At the board meeting in November, the current and former chairs for Rock Haven BINGO moved to discontinue the service project at the end of this term(May 2005) for a variety of reasons. The motion passed unanimously. A dissenting opinion was brought up at this board meeting, and there was much discussion. It was then voted to rescind last month's vote and vote again on the issue in April so that more angles and arguments could be explored.
4. Also discussed at the board meeting were the resignations of Virg Wallen(who will be offered honorary status) and Josh McCarthy(who moved to Madison). Josh's resignation creates a vacancy on the board that will need to be filled early next month. The vacant term is through Sept. 2006. The responsibilities are attendance of one board meeting per month (3rd

Wed. of the month). If you or anyone you know would be willing to step up and serve your club, and at the same time really learn what the club is doing, please let Tom, Kevin, or Ed know as soon as possible. A vote will be scheduled for the first or second meeting in January.

5. It is getting near scholarship season. If any member has a son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, stepson or daughter, or step-grandson or granddaughter who is graduating from Parker or Craig this year, please let Bob Elliott, Tom or Kevin know soon.
6. NEXT MEETING MONDAY, DECEMBER 20TH AT ROTARY GARDENS AT NOON!!! (may want to get there a little early)
7. Next REGULAR meeting - Thursday Dec. 30th (FAMILY DAY). Feel free to bring kids, grandkids and spouses.

Happy Dollars:

1. Michelle Jones was happy about her participation in the Tour of Lights(so was her husband ... this way he did not have to cart her all around town!)(incidentally, she got tips from the passengers which went to the happy dollar box)
2. Laura Feit was happy to be moving into her new house on Saturday
3. Kevin Apfel was happy ... honestly I don't remember exactly why. I think it was because he was on a VERY full bus at the Tour of lights, but I also remember Jim Damrow's lederhosen being brought up again
4. Jim Holmstrom thought that Michelle's and Laura's happy $'s were going to be because they were both sitting by him. They weren't, but Jim was still happy to be sitting by them!

UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

12/20 - Joint Service Club meeting @ rotary gardens
12/30 - Family Day(Bring someone! We want to meet them.)

Thank you to Tom Waller for taking meeting notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
