She also reported on a recent service project to obtain passenger pigeon prints for the local schools. The Key Clubbers delivered the prints to the elementary schools.

Crystal Lippincott and Kathleen Brost told about activities of the Parker Key Club which included clean-up at a City Park, their Food Drive earlier this spring (over 5,000 items collected for ECHO), attending the Key Club Convention in Green Bay this spring, and working at the Air Fest this weekend.

Hollie Marshall and Melissa Lentz told about the Madison K-Kids about their work in planting flowers in front of their school, making cards to send to military troops, raising $600, holding a design contest and a penny drive to help build and support schools.

Jessica Grandt and Jennifer Leneau reported on raising money by the Wilson School K-Kids and organizing a dance for the students, which was very popular.
