HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES
* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

November 19, 2009, Vol. XXVIII, No. 3

Junior Achievement of Rock County

Our November Students of the Month are: From Craig: Brandan Moore and Anne Morgan; and from Parker: Daniel Lehr and Ashley Weber.

Guests:

Jennifer Wagner returned as a guest of the club, and turned in an application for membership, which, by the way, was acted upon at the board meeting following our club meeting. So be sure and welcome Jennifer as our newest Kiwanian.

Other guests included Erin Montgomery, guest of Jennifer Wagner; Julia Gabrielson, guest of Laurie Huml Eckert; and Sheila Killion, guest of Andy Frelich.

We also had 3 members of the Whitewater Kiwanis Club interclubbing with us, and our Lt. Governor, Bob Knutson also joined us.

Announcements:

We are looking for a member or members to run for an open board seat due to the resignation of George Mark. The term will only be through September 2010 (the remainder of the term George was serving).

Ben Coopman made a plea for members to sign up for club committees on which they wish to serve. This is part of a slight revision to our club committee structure, to aid us in remaining Janesville's most active service club.

UPCOMING IMPORTANT DATES:

Annual Service Club Joint Meeting is being hosted by our club this year, and will be held at the Armory on TUESDAY DEC 8th. The program will be some beautiful a cappella Christmas music sung by our local high school students.

Breakfast with Santa: Will be held MONDAY DECEMBER 7th at First Lutheran Church. We will be doing all the cooking ourselves. We need about 15 volunteers, from 8:00 am to 11:00 am that day for this very wonderful event.

Remember, First Lutheran Church, not Cargill this year.

Salvation Army Bell Ringing will be Friday December 18th at 4 locations. I am happy to report that there is someone at all but one location: we need the 4-6 pm shift at the Wal Mart grocery entrance filled. Also could use a second person, both shifts at Sentry Court Street, and a second person for the 6-8 shift at Woodmans Bakery. You may sign up online or call Jim Damrow at 754-3696

Happy Dollars:

Kevin Apfel Had a Happy Dollar for the Raffle winners at our Fest of Ale event who donated half or all of their winnings back to the club.

Ben Coopman had a happy dollar as he is in charge of the Rock County Airport, and he was happy that one of our students is a pilot

Ace of Hearts Drawing Results:

Irene Stewart had the lucky ticket, but drew the unlucky 5 of Hearts.

Our Program – Junior Achievement of Rock County.

Kim Hendricks, JA Board Member spoke to the club about the Junior Achievement program in our local schools.

Rock County District currently serves more than 4,350 students in 200 classrooms this school year in Green, Rock, and Walworth counties in Wisconsin.

The goal is to expand the number of classrooms to 245 this school year, which increases the ever present need for volunteers to work with the teachers as JA Advisors.
