

Clergy Appreciation

Pastor Bruce Jones of First Presbyterian Church was our guest program for today's gathering of Clergy. Pastor Bruce highlighted the upcoming events Of the Day of Compassion, August 21, 2004. A carnival like atmosphere will host a Galleria of events from free haircuts, school supplies and clothing. Groceries will be handed out and Pastor Bruce hopes that about 4500 people will benefit From this event. Churches will be working together To be "the body of Christ". Beneficiaries will be Asked to perform 5 acts of kindness over the following 5 weeks.

Attendance: In what was probably the best "Clergy Appreciation Day" in a while, 52 members and invited guests enjoyed a great lunch and program.

Guests: Fred Ellenberger and his pal Al Pine visited from the Rockford club.

Students: Karen Severson and Devin Burgess are our guest students of the month from Craig High School.

Key Club: Jake, Ashley, Cynthia and Mary (the driver) visited from Parker Key Club

Happy Dollars: Eric Scherdell had a couple. One was for the front page Gazette picture of Linda and Kevin cleaning Kiwanis Pond and the other was for Kiwanis Park. Dave O'Leary had one for his brother Tim who will be receiving the "Officer of the Year" award. Eric Scherdell tossed in another buck for Tim. Seems that the two went to high school together and Eric said that Tim wouldn't be in the running for the award back then.

Ken Austin is happy to be back in Janesville. Stu Charland was happy to have Pastor Paul here.

Pete Carman announced the birth of his 4th child at 2:15 am, today.

Andy Frelich had a buck for Eric's mother yelling at Eric.

Robbi Seales had a buck for the successful Mother's Day Breakfast and a buck for her guest's guest.

Fred had the stuffed "Al Pine" guest because you get the bear at their club if you don't bring a guest.

Ed Pulliam had a buck for so many clergy today and another for Andy's thorough cleaning of the pond. Seems Andy got left behind.

George Mark was happy to see Father Mike today and also marked his 50th anniversary in providing Janesville residents with affordable housing.

Dale Halverson had a buck for the big group of guests. Great turnout Dale!

Angela Bernhardt had a buck for Pete. She was called early on in the evening to babysit Pete's children when he went to the hospital. Tom Waller had a buck for the "Best Ever" Mother's Day Breakfast.

Jim Leeser had a buck for his pastor making the meeting today.
